

August 22, 2007

Church Family and Friends of FUMC Mexia,

I hope everyone has had a great summer. We have had a busy summer here at the church with various programs, ministries, and missions. With September fast-approaching I wanted to inform all of you as to our Wednesday evening programs. We have designed Wednesday evenings to where everyone, children and adults alike, have an opportunity to participate. Below is a schedule of Wednesday activities beginning September 5th:

5:00 p.m.

- Supper in the Fellowship Hall (Our first supper on September 5th will be a fish fry.)
- Women's Bible Study. Gael McKeever will be leading a Beth Moore study on the book of Daniel. The group will eat together in the boardroom as they begin their study.

5:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

"Peacekeeper's Ringers" Handbell Choir Practice – Richard Morgan will be leading the group.

5:30 p.m.

Youth Group Meets for Supper

6:00 p.m.

- Worship Service in the Fellowship Hall
- Music Makers Group – This program will be led by Sue Franks and is a comprehensive approach to not only music, but also the faith development of our children. The group is for children K-3rd grade.
- Peacekeeper's Group (4th and 5th grade) – The Peacekeeper's will attend the 6:00 p.m. worship service and afterwards will have their lesson with Cheryl Hancock concluding at 7:30 p.m.
- Youth Group (Junior High and High School) -- The Youth Group will attend the 6:00 p.m. worship service together and afterwards will split off into two groups: Junior High / High School for their lessons which will conclude at 7:30 p.m.

7:00 p.m.

- Adult Choir Practice
- Disciple Bible Study Class

Wednesdays will be a time of worship, fellowship, and most importantly, faith development. We will have childcare available from 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. I look forward to our time together on Wednesdays.

In Christ,

Rev. Brad Brittain